14. About 15 November a unit of the 12 Artillery Regiment was in the Pei Ling Miao (北靈廟) area, just northeast of Foochow.⁸ This unit had several artillery pieces, two of which were emplaced directly behind the temple.

25X1A 1. [] Comment. This artillery regiment may be attached or assigned to the 62 Division which is also at Huangyen.

25X1A 2. [] Comment. These may be troops of the 61 Division of the 21 Army, since the other divisions of that army were known to be at Huangyen and Wenchow, according to []

25X1

25X1A 3. [] Comment. Possibly this is the unit referred to as the South Chekiang Garrison Brigade in paragraph 3b above.

25X1A 4. [] Comment. [] reports that the Taiwan invasion headquarters moved from Tinghai to Foochow in November or December 1951. In mid-December 1951 SU Yu was apparently performing his duties as deputy commander of the 3 Field Army in Nanking, []

25X1A 5. [] Comment. Tatungtao (119- , 25-) may be intended here.

6. [] Comment. This may be Chenhaich'eng (118-05, 24-16).

25X1 7. [] Comment. This name was spelled Hsinan in the original report.

25X1 8. [] Comment. This probably refers to the 12 Antiaircraft Regiment.
